

ShanlingTech Company Profile

Empowering Business Through Technology

Brand Overview

ShanlingTech is an internet technology brand specializing in software development, website construction, and digital transformation services. We provide professional technology solutions for enterprises worldwide, including corporate website development, foreign trade website construction, software systems, mobile applications, and digital business solutions.

ShanlingTech focuses on helping enterprises establish modern digital platforms, improve operational efficiency, strengthen online brand presence, and expand global markets through reliable technology services.

Company Introduction

ShanlingTech belongs to Shanghai Shanling Network Technology Co., Ltd. The company focuses on internet technology development, software engineering, website construction, and enterprise digital services.

Through continuous technology research and project experience, ShanlingTech has developed a comprehensive service system covering website development, software customization, enterprise information systems, e-commerce platforms, mobile applications, and digital solutions.

Core Business Areas

Website Development

Enterprise websites, brand websites, responsive websites, multilingual websites, marketing websites, and industry platforms.

Software Development

Customized CRM, ERP, OA systems, data management platforms, business applications, and enterprise information systems.

Cross-border Digital Solutions

Foreign trade websites, international websites, multilingual platforms, overseas deployment, global access optimization, and independent store development.

Mobile Application Development

Android applications, iOS applications, WeChat mini programs, and enterprise mobile solutions.

Enterprise Website Solutions

ShanlingTech provides complete website development services from strategy planning, visual design, programming, deployment, and maintenance.

Solutions include:

- Corporate official websites
- Brand presentation websites
- Product showcase websites
- Responsive multi-device websites
- Multilingual global websites
- Website management systems

Marketing Website Development

Marketing websites are designed around customer acquisition and business conversion.

Our solutions include:

- Market analysis
- User experience planning
- Marketing page design
- Lead generation systems
- Online consultation systems
- SEO-friendly website architecture
- Data analysis support

Foreign Trade Website & Global Services

ShanlingTech helps export companies build international digital platforms.

Services include:

- Multilingual website development
- Global corporate websites
- Overseas server deployment
- International website optimization
- Global search engine friendly architecture
- Customer inquiry systems

We help businesses communicate with global customers more efficiently.

Cross-border E-commerce Solutions

We provide independent store and e-commerce platform development services.

Solutions include:

- Cross-border independent websites
- Product management systems
- Order management systems
- Multi-language support
- Multi-currency functions
- International payment integration
- Customer management systems

Digital Transformation Services

Digital transformation is not only technology upgrading, but also business improvement.

ShanlingTech helps enterprises achieve:

- Information digitalization
- Management digitalization
- Operation digitalization
- Marketing digitalization
- Service digitalization

Brand Positioning

ShanlingTech is positioned as an enterprise digital solution provider.

By combining software development capabilities with digital service experience, we help enterprises build sustainable digital ecosystems and improve competitiveness in the digital economy.

Development History

2020: Brand establishment and website development services began.

2021: Website development systems and technical service processes were improved.

2022: Expanded into enterprise digitalization and information system solutions.

2023: Strengthened brand development and completed trademark registration.

2024: Expanded software development and enterprise management system services.

2025: Started international website services and cross-border digital solutions.

2026: Established a comprehensive digital service system covering websites, software, applications, and technology solutions.

Technology Direction

ShanlingTech continuously explores modern technologies including:

- Web application development
- Cloud computing applications
- SaaS platform development
- Enterprise information systems
- Data management systems
- Mobile internet applications
- Artificial intelligence applications
- Cross-border internet technologies

Service Process

Requirement Analysis → Solution Planning → Product Design → Software Development → System Testing → Deployment → Technical Support

We provide complete project implementation services to ensure stable and practical digital solutions.

Brand Mission

ShanlingTech is committed to connecting technology with business needs.

Through website development, software engineering, and digital solutions, we help enterprises improve efficiency, enhance online presence, and achieve sustainable growth.

Vision & Values

Vision:

To become a trusted technology partner for enterprises worldwide.

Core Values:

Integrity — Building trustworthy partnerships.

Innovation — Continuously improving technology solutions.

Practical Service — Solving real business challenges.

Cooperation — Creating long-term value together.

Company Information

Brand Name: ShanlingTech

Industry:

Internet Technology Services

Main Services:

Software Development

Website Development

Foreign Trade Website Construction

Digital Transformation Solutions

Mobile Application Development

Slogan:

ShanlingTech · Empowering Business Through Technology